

Nationalist Janshakti Party proposes to collect donations from the public for welfare activities benefiting poor children and elderly people. These should also comply with applicable laws and regulations in India.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR DONATIONS

1. Purpose of Donations

All donations received will be utilized for charitable and welfare activities, including but not limited to:

- Educational assistance for underprivileged children.
- Food, clothing, and healthcare support for poor children.
- Welfare, healthcare, and support services for elderly and destitute persons.
- Other social welfare activities undertaken by the organization.

2. Voluntary Contribution

All donations are made voluntarily by the donor without any coercion, pressure, or expectation of personal benefit, favor, or reward.

3. Use of Funds

The organization shall make reasonable efforts to utilize donated funds for the stated welfare purposes. The organization reserves the right to allocate funds where they are most needed to support its charitable activities.

4. Donation Receipt

An official receipt will be issued for every donation received, subject to the donor providing the necessary details.

5. Donor Information

Donors may be required to provide their name, address, contact number, email address, and any other information required by law or for record-keeping purposes.

6. Refund Policy

Donations made voluntarily are generally non-refundable. Refund requests, if any, shall be considered only in exceptional circumstances and at the sole discretion of the organization.

7. Compliance with Law

The organization shall collect and utilize donations in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and government guidelines.

8. Transparency

The organization may maintain records of donations received and welfare activities conducted. Donors may request general information regarding the utilization of funds, subject to confidentiality and legal requirements.

9. No Guarantee of Specific Use

Unless expressly agreed in writing, donations shall not be restricted to a specific beneficiary, project, or individual.

10. Anti-Money Laundering Compliance

The organization reserves the right to refuse or return any donation that may violate applicable laws, regulations, or ethical standards.

11. Privacy of Donor Information

Donor information shall be maintained confidentially and used only for lawful purposes related to donation management, communication, and statutory compliance.

12. Acceptance of Terms

By making a donation, the donor acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms and Conditions.
